LUTHERAN STUDENT MOVEMENT

LUTHERAN STUDENT MOVEMENT
ROCKY MOUNTAIN REGION

Called by the grace of God and nurtured in a community built around the Word and Sacrament, we, the Lutheran Student Movement-USA, join together to serve God & minister in Christ's name.

Through this ministry and in the Lutheran tradition of reform, we explore social & spiritual concerns and accept the challenge to unit with all the people of God.

WHAT'S SO GREAT ABOUT ROCKY MOUNTAIN?

What is LSM?

Lutheran Student Movement (LSM) is a pan-Lutheran student led organization active at the local, regional, and national level created to promote the active participation of students in the life and mission of the Lutheran Church on their campuses, in their communities, and as individuals.

LSM-USA is divided 12 regions. Our region, the Rocky Mountain Region (LSM-RMR), is made up of Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming, and El Paso, TX.

What does Rocky Mountain Do?

Rocky Mountain prides itself in its annual regional retreats. Our Fall retreat which is held somewhere near the four corners each year. This is a gathering of all schools in the region.

During the spring semester the north and south part of the region hold separate retreats.

At these retreats we enjoy fellowship with one another and take part in different service projects. Recent projects have been sending kits to a school in Sudan, cleaning-up highways, serving at food banks and others

At the end of December through the beginning of January schools from the different regions attend the national gathering. Here we follow a similar format to our regional retreat on a larger scale. The Rocky Mountain Region is known for its high level of involvement and large numbers at the National Gathering.

Lutheran Student Movement-USA

Rocky Mountain is known for its involvement in cross cultural immersion experiences. The LSM is committed to being the “now” of the Lutheran Church.
